Fostering, from an early age, the love and appreciation of Music

Hello, my name is Theresa Wallwork and this year I became the president of the CJCS Society. I was secretary for about ten (10) years prior to that, until Marina Dunstan generously accepted the nomination as secretary last year.

So, who am I? I became involved with the CJCS when my grandchildren were members and I stayed on after they moved on. I work as a Personal Assistant and my husband, John, is retired. I am also Mrs. D's niece. I enjoy singing and for many years was involved in a church choir. I am taking a break this year.

Next month I will introduce you to another of the committee members.

COVID-19 protocols – while we will take all possible precautions to guard against infection however, we can not guarantee 100% protection.

MEETING INFORMATION: generally held on the 3rd Monday of the month at 6.30pm.

At the moment we plan to have our next meeting on the 17th August commencing at 6.30pm. Please come along some time, even just to say hello, but most importantly let us know if you have any ideas.

Like everyone else our finances are really low and we do have to continue to pay accounts. So we are asking if you have any fundraising ideas. We are in the process of applying for a Bunnings sausage sizzle date, which we may not get. But if we do get the opportunity we definitely need your assistance to work the BBQ for the day. It is vital we have the required workers on the day. If we were lucky enough to get a date and you are not available to help out you might consider asking a family member, or friend, to take your place.

So please, please give it some serious thought – do you have any ideas of how we can raise some much needed funds?

Some laughs to lighten our COVID situation

- The longer I stay home, the more homeless I look.
- Wearing a mask inside your home is now highly recommended. Not so much to prevent COVID-19 but to stop eating.
- Muffins spelled backwards is exactly what you do when you take them out of the oven.
- Until further notice the days of the week are now called thisday, thatday, otherday, someday, yesterday today and nextday.
- Anyone else's car getting three weeks to the gallon now?
- I never thought the comment "I would not touch him/her with a six foot pole." Would become a national policy, but here we are.
- 2019 stay away from negative people – in 2020 stay away from positive people.

Life is hard. If you don't laugh it's even harder.

So some more funnies to keep you going

BUNNINGS: we are still looking for someone who would be available to do the Bunnings orientation, if we are lucky enough to get a date for a sausage sizzle.

This does not take long and it is necessary to have someone do this workshop to allow us to have a sausage sizzle. If we were to get a date we have the opportunity to make up to $2,000.

Please give some thought about helping us out.
